LHC NOTICE: HUSBAND THROWS ACID ON WIFE

LAHORE, FEB 11, 2014

On Tuesday, Lahore High Court Complaint Cell took notice of a press report on administrative side that husband threw acid on wife for not opting prostitution.

The Cell has directed the District & Sessions Judge, Lahore to look into the matter and submit a detailed report regarding steps taken by police along with his own comments within a week.

According to details, a woman resident of Qanchi Amer Sidhu divulged before media that her sister-in-law along with her mother were forcing her to become a prostitute and in that act her husband was also involved. On denying, they abducted the woman and her husband along with his accomplices threw acid on her. After some days, the accused persons accompanied some criminals attacked her house and beat her up. The attackers also took jewellery, cash and other valuables from her house. The woman alleged that she approached police for registration of a case against Kashif, Ijaz, Qaiser, Judge Shah, Misbah, Farkhanda, Azra, Zahida and other accused but police connived with the culprits. Instead of taking action against them, police was threatening the applicant. According to news report, the victim had appealed to higher authorities for justice and demanded action against delinquent police officials. (MEDIA CELL)
