MAN KILLED PREGNANT WIFE LHC DISPOSES OFF THE MATTER

LAHORE, MARCH 11, 2014:

Lahore High Court Complaint Cell has disposed off its notice “husband killed pregnant wife over domestic dispute” as police report has been submitted in the court of Additional District & Sessions Judge and the needful has been done and for the time being no further direction was required by the Cell on administrative side.

According to details, one Iftikhar Ali, resident of Marzipura Taliyanwala Road, Faisalabad despatched an application to the Complaint Cell stating therein that his sister was killed by her husband over a minor issue. The applicant got registered a case under section 302 PPC with police station Kotwali. The applicant further stated that the accused was an influential person. He was present in the police station from the day of the occurrence but the police was neither registering his arrest nor presenting before the area magistrate. The applicant was the eye witness to the gruesome murder of the happening but police was not interrogating him in order to weaken the case.

On a press report LHC Complaint Cell took cognizance of the issue and directed District & Sessions Judge Faisalabad to probe into the incident and submit a detailed report as to the steps taken by the police along with his own comments so as to reach Lahore High Court within a week. The said Sessions Judge reported that as per police investigation the deceased Ayesha Bib committed suicide with the licensed pistol of her husband and police also prepared cancellation report of the case but the trial court did not agree with the police version and directed the police to submit report u/s 173 Cr.P.C which has been submitted in the concerned court of law where the case is under trial. (MEDIA CELL)
