CONTRADICTION

Lahore, April 8:

Apropos news item “Lawyer-judge differences: Bar leaders walk out over chief Justice’s ‘black sheep’ remark” found space in your esteemed paper of today is incorrect and baseless. The factual position is that neither the Hon’ble Chief Justice passed any such remarks nor it was highlighted by print or electronic media. The auditorium of the Punjab Judicial Academy, the venue of the function, was jam packed to its capacity and there remained a pin drop silence during the speech of the Hon’ble Chief Justice. All the office bearers of Lahore High Court Bar Associations and Learned advocates in large numbers along with representatives of Judges and staff of the District Judiciary of the Punjab as well all the Hon’ble Judges listened to speech of the Hon’ble Chief Justice attentively. In fact, the event was arranged in a good faith to improve the working relationship among the stake holders of system of justice in order to provide succor to the litigant public. Moreover, the title of talk was a dialogue on “Court Management and Culture of Tolerance”. It was meant for Judges and staff of the District Judiciary and well attended by the office bearers of the Lahore High Court Bar Association. Therefore, the maligning of any member of advocate community was not in sight. (MEDIA CELL)
