LHC NOTICE:
WOMAN INJURED IN ACID ATTACK

LAHORE, MAY 23, 2014:

On Friday, Lahore High Court Complaint Cell took notice of a press report on administrative side that a 22-year-old married woman suffered burns as three people threw acid on her.

The Cell has directed the District & Sessions Judge, Lahore to look into the matter and submit detailed report regarding steps taken by police along with his own comments within a week.

According to details, police said the woman, 22, was standing at Mandi Stop when the suspects threw acid on her and fled from the scene. They said the victim had identified the suspects, saying one of them had also raped her some time ago and she had lodged a case against him with Hanjarwal police. According to Rescue-1122, two men and a woman approached the woman on a motorcycle and threw acid on her. The victim received up to 30 per cent burns in the attack but her face remained safe. She was admitted to Jinnah Hospital. Police registered a case against the nominated accused persons which were still at large. (MEDIA CELL)
