CJ LHC INAUGURATES VIDEO LINK TRAINING AT PJA

LAHORE, MAY 24, 2014:

Chief Justice of Lahore High Court, Mr. Justice Umar Ata Bandial has advised the Judicial Officers to augment their knowledge with the use of information technology. Honesty is the best policy but an adjudicator must have grip over the expertise and knowledge of law as well as Constitution.

The Hon'ble Chief Justice was delivering inaugural address to the Judges of District Judiciary via video link system developed for online training courses at Punjab Judicial Academy. Hon'ble Chief Justice exhorted upon the judges to improve their knowledge in all the fields of law with the use of latest gadgets. Registrar Mr. Mehboob Qadir Shah, Director General of Academy, Mr. Sohail Nasir and Director Admin Syed Nasir Ali Shah also accompanied the Chief Justice while District & Sessions Judge, Lahore, Senior Civil Judge and other Judicial Officers were at the other end at the Sessions Court, Lahore.

“Initially, this innovative facility has been launched for the District Courts of the Provincial metropolis and gradually it will be extended to every district as well as tehsil of the Punjab after rectifying the faults hindering the smooth and quality of interlink facility”, Hon'ble CJ maintained. Lahore High Court attaches great importance to the Punjab Judicial Academy as it is a great seat of learning and proving helpful for enhancing the vision of Judicial Officers. With the advent of online sharing the legal terminologies and decision making skills amongst the judges of District Judiciary, speedy and quality based judgments will emerge. Hon'ble Chief Justice asked the judges to enhance their vision in the diversified spheres of law, such as liberal vision, human right vision and Constitutional vision. Earlier, Director General of Academy, Mr. Sohail Nasir said that we are the pioneer in launching the video link training at the Academy with the sagacious guidance and patronage of the Hon'ble Chief Justice and expected weekly and fortnightly launching of training programs for Judicial Officers. District & Sessions Judge, Lahore speaking from the other end thanked the Hon'ble Chief Justice for ushering in the era of sharing knowledge via modern technology which will increase the capacity of the judges to deliver better judgments. (MEDIA CELL)
