LHC NOTICE:
WOMAN SHOT TO DEATH BY BROTHER

LAHORE, JUNE 05, 2014:

On Thursday, Lahore High Court Complaint Cell took notice of a press report on administrative side that a woman was shot to death on court premises in Chiniot by her brother allegedly for marrying a man of her choice.

The Cell has directed the District & Sessions Judge, Chiniot to look into the matter and submit detailed report regarding steps taken by police along with his own comments within a week.

According to details, Anam Bibi, resident of Chak No. 237/GB had contracted love marriage with Ameer Sultan. In retaliation, Asif, brother of the woman got registered an abduction case against Ameer Sultan in Langrana police station. Anam Bibi appeared before the Area Magistrate and got recorded her statement. Police shifted her to Faisalabad Dara ul Aman on Court orders. On the day of occurrence, when police again brought Anam Bibi for producing her before the Court, Asif and Zaka Ullah present in Kachehri opened fire and shot the woman dead. Later, they surrendered to police who registered a case against them and started investigation. (MEDIA CELL)
