LHC TAKES SERIOUS NOTICE:
POLICE HALT IHC CHIEF JUSTICE,
LET GO GRANDSON OF MALIK RAIZ

Lahore, Jan 10:

Mr. Justice Muhammad Anwar Khan Kasi, Hon'ble Chief Justice of Islamabad High Court was travelling to Lahore via motorway in his staff car without any official protocol on the evening of January 09. On exiting motorway, Hon'ble Chief Justice was in line at a police check post when police officials stopped his car unnecessarily for allowing a private motorcade of a grandson (Nawasa) of Malik Riaz to pass through without checking. Policemen pounced the Hon'ble CJ's vehicle and repeatedly drummed it with their fists.

Lahore High Court took serious notice of the incident and Registrar Sardar Ahmad Naeem has asked Inspector General of Police, Punjab to hold an inquiry into the matter and submit a detailed report immediately for perusal of the authority. (MEDIA CELL)
