D&SJ SOHAIL NASIR TAKES CHARGE AS DG PJA

Lahore, January 06:

District & Sessions Judge Sohail Nasir assumed charge of the office of Director General of Punjab Judicial Academy, today. For the first time in history of the Academy, Hon'ble Chief Justice Umar Ata Bandial has appointed a serving district and sessions judge as its head. Earlier former judges of Supreme Court had the privilege to look after the affairs of the academy. On this occasion, Sohail Nasir said that he would try his level best to come up to the expectations of Hon'ble Chief Justice and make best use of available resources for providing excellent training to the judicial officers of the province as well as trainees of other departments associated with the judiciary.

Previously, Sessions Judge Sohail Nasir has worked as Registrar of Islamabad as well as Lahore High Courts. He was also special judge Anti-Corruption Court and Consumer Court of Rawalpindi and remained District & Sessions Judge of a number of districts including Gujranwala, Faisalabad and Mianwali etc. (MEDIA CELL)
