PROFESSION OF LAW REQUIRES READING HABIT: CJ LHC

LAHORE, JAN 30, 2014:

Chief Justice of Lahore High Court, Lahore, Mr. Justice Umar Ata Bandial has said that learning is a continuous and prolonged process and a man keeps learning from cradle to grave. The profession of law demands more rigorous and repeated reading of legal books as well as journals of law with full attention.

Hon'ble Chief Justice was talking to a delegation of Tehsil Liaqat Pur Bar Association who had completed its two days joint training workshop at the Punjab Judicial Academy, yesterday. Hon'ble Chief Justice said that Lahore High Court attaches great importance to the far flung areas that's why advocates and judges from Bahawalpur Division have been invited. Bar leaders thanked the Hon'ble Chief Justice for the training program for them and informed that they were benefited a lot from the said session at Punjab Judicial Academy and it would also help improve relations between Bench and the Bar. They further demanded more such joint sittings in future and requested that such useful workshops should also be arranged for District level. (MEDIA CELL)
